

The Colorado Society of the Sons of the American Revolution

January 23, 2018

Compatriots,

The Colorado Society of the Sons of the American Revolution (COSSAR) cordially invites you to attend The Annual George Washington Luncheon with the President General of the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, Larry T Guzy and his wife Karin. The Luncheon will be held Saturday, February 17th at Arrowhead Golf Club in Roxborough Park.

This will be an opportunity for long-time and new members to meet the leadership of our organization, so we encourage members of all chapters and at-large to attend. Events will include Posting and Retirement of the Colors by the COSSAR Color Guard, a keynote address by the National President General, and COSSAR's presentation of awards to recognize members of the public for outstanding service and achievement.

The meeting will be held at Arrowhead Golf Club, 10850 W. Sundown trail. Littleton, Colorado 80125 at 11:00-3:00 pm and the cost of the meal for members and guests will be $27.50 a person.

It will be a Buffet Meal of London Broil Steak garnished with sautéed Onions and Mushrooms, Lightly Floured & Sauteed Grilled Chicken served with a Lemon Caper Sauce & fresh lemons, Green Beans Almondine, & Garlic Mashed Potatoes.

Please send your reservations and the names of people in your party by close of business Friday, February 9th. To Richard Hoskinson, 6950 Oak Valley Dr., Colorado Springs, CO 80919-3405.

We look forward to seeing you at the Annual George Washington Luncheon,

Gene Cheney
